

TENNESSEE
Campus Compact

"Service-learning is the various pedagogies that link community service and academic study so that each strengthens the other."
- Thomas Ehrlich, July 1996

THE HOWARD H.
BAKER JR.
CENTER
for PUBLIC POLICY

THE UNIVERSITY of TENNESSEE
KNOXVILLE

2nd Annual Conference

Service-Learning in Higher Education: Faculty Roles & Rewards

REGISTER ONLINE TODAY!

Free for TNCC members—$100 for non-member
Limited to the first 100 registrants!

Don't miss this great opportunity to learn from the experts and your colleagues from across Tennessee!

Join us on Sept. 16-17, 2010

at the Howard H. Baker Jr. Center for Public Policy, University of Tennessee, Knoxville

Featuring....

- Dr. Janet Eyler, Vanderbilt University— The Power of Doing: Service-Learning, Civic Engagement, and Learning
- Sen. Bob Graham - Answering the Call of Service: Campuses as a Focal Point of Civic Education and Engagement
- Rep. Kevin Brooks, Civic Engagement & Service-Learning: A view from the Tennessee State Legislature

...and your colleagues from across the state for discussion, sharing and collaboration on service-learning in higher education in Tennessee!

To register for the conference and learn about hotel accommodations, etc., please click on or copy this link into your web browser.

<http://tinyurl.com/27dqs9t> The agenda follows. Questions? Call 865-974-0931.

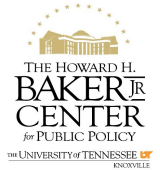

2nd Annual Conference

Tennessee | Campus Compact

Service-Learning in Higher Education: Faculty Roles & Rewards

September 16-17, 2010

Howard H. Baker Jr. Center for Public Policy
University of Tennessee, Knoxville

Thursday, September 16, 2010 (all times EST)

Webcast link = <http://tinyurl.com/2fsw355>

9:30-10:00 am Registration & Coffee

10:00-10:15 am Welcome

Dr. Nissa Dahlin-Brown, Associate Director, Howard H. Baker Jr. Center for Public Policy, University of Tennessee, Knoxville

Interim President Jan Simek, University of Tennessee System

President Claude O. Pressnell, Jr., Tennessee Independent Colleges and Universities Association, TNCC Vice-Chair

Chancellor Jimmy Cheek, University of Tennessee, Knoxville

10:15-10:45 am Educational, Social, and Economic Impact of TNCC Programs and Services

Mani S. Hull, Tennessee Campus Compact (TNCC) Executive Director, Lipscomb University

Laura Malugade, TNCC Statewide VISTA Leader, Lipscomb University

Trina Hughes, TNCC Central Office VISTA, Lipscomb University

10:45-11:45 am The Power of Doing: Service-Learning, Civic Engagement & Learning

Noted expert, author and professor, Dr. Janet Eyster, Professor of the Practice of Education, Vanderbilt University, will discuss her research on Service-Learning and then field questions and comments from panelists.

Dr. Ron Kates, Service-Learning Advisory Board, Middle Tennessee State University

Ms. Jennifer Pitts, Communications Instructor, Volunteer State Community College

Ms. Christin Shatzer, Director, Service and Learning Together (SALT), Lipscomb University

Noon -1:00 pm Luncheon-TNCC AmeriCorps*VISTA Impact, Awards and Announcements

Dr. Jerry Herman, Director, Corporation for National and Community Service (CNCS), Tennessee State Office

Brandi Belcher, TNCC Americorps*VISTA, Martin Methodist College

Kyle Hinch, TNCC Americorps*VISTA, Lee University

Jamie Dent, AmeriCorps Program Manager, Volunteer Tennessee

Awards Presentation: Mani S. Hull, TNCC Executive Director, Lipscomb University

Thursday, September 16, 2010, cont'd. (all times EST)

- 1:15-2:15 pm Building for Success: Models for Faculty Recruitment, Support and Development of Service-Learning Courses
Panelists will describe how their campuses attract and support faculty in developing Service-Learning courses/projects and share successful models. Moderator: Ms. Susan Webb-Curtis, Director of Cooperative Education & Service-Learning, Cleveland State Community College
Dr. Deborah Harley, Assistant Professor, Human Development & Learning, East Tennessee State University
Dr. Michael Hayes, Vice President for Student Development, Lee University
Dr. David Schumann, Director and Professor, Tennessee Teaching & Learning Center, University of Tennessee, Knoxville
- 2:15-3:15 pm What Gets Measured, Gets Rewarded: Documenting Service and Service-Learning in Higher Education
Speakers will provide models for documenting service and service-learning -- What needs to be counted? Why? How is the information used? How is it gathered? Who is the audience for the information (legislators, donors, alumni, students, parents, etc.)? Why is documentation essential for promoting service-learning? Moderator: Dr. Lynn Champion, Director, College of Arts & Sciences, University of Tennessee, Knoxville
Dr. Theresa Ennis, Director of Assessment, Assistant Professor Interdisciplinary Studies, Tennessee Technological University
Dr. Michael McCullough, Professor of Management and Director, Institute for Civic Engagement, University of Tennessee at Martin
Dr. Sue Fuller, Director of Service-Learning and Civic Engagement, Tennessee State University
- 3:15-3:30 pm Break
- 3:30-4:30 pm What Gets Rewarded Gets Done! Issues in Faculty Tenure & Promotion
Speakers will provide an overview of how their campuses recognize service-learning and engaged scholarship and discuss areas where problems have arisen and what they have done to address those, plus future plans. Discussion facilitated by Dr. Sarah Gardial, Vice Provost, University of Tennessee, Knoxville
Dr. Clark Maddux, Assistant Professor of Early American Literature, Austin Peay State Univ.
Dr. David Cox, Executive Assistant to the President for Partnerships and Administration, University of Memphis
- 4:30-5:30 pm On the Front Line - Student Reactions to Service-Learning
Student panel facilitated by Dr. Bob Kronick & Dr. Nissa Dahlin-Brown, UTK
Tinisia E. Branch, TNCC AmeriCorps* VISTA Summer Associate, sophomore in Sociology, Southwest Tennessee Community College
Brittany Sims, TNCC AmeriCorps* VISTA, graduate student, College of Public Service & Urban Affairs, TSU
Eric Dixon, TNCC AmeriCorps* VISTA Summer Associate, sophomore in Philosophy, UTK
- 5:30-7:00 pm Reception at the Holiday Inn World's Fair Park

Friday, September 17, 2010 - Celebrate Constitution Day!

Webcast link is <http://tinyurl.com/24ds353>

8:30-9:00 am Coffee and Networking

9:00-9:20 am Civic Engagement & Service-Learning: A View from the Tennessee State Legislature

Rep. Kevin Brooks, House District 24, Member, Committee on Higher Education

9:20-10:00 am Funding Service-Learning & Civic Engagement: Building a Federal Grants Portfolio & Ideas from the Campuses

Q & A about grants. Mani S. Hull, TNCC Executive Director, Lipscomb University

10:00-11:00 am Answering the Call of Service: Campuses as a Focal Point of Civic Education and Engagement

Former Florida Governor, U.S. Senator, and author, Bob Graham, will offer comments from his book, America: The Owner's Manual, a book written for college students, which uses case studies of successful efforts by citizens to influence the political system. Sen. Graham is an advocate for civic education and engagement. His book represents this view and some of the ideas which are at the core of the mission of the Bob Graham Center for Public Service at the University of Florida. Book signing to follow.

11:00-11:15 am Break and Book signing with Sen. Graham

11:15 - Noon TNCC Advisory Committee Meeting

Noon Adjourn

Sponsorships & Thanks!

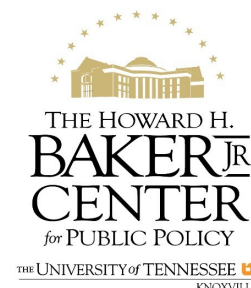

Thanks to all of our Tennessee speakers who have donated their time and travel.

Thanks to the UT Howard H. Baker Jr. Center for Public Policy for sponsoring Sen. Bob Graham's appearance and providing the facility for this year's TNCC meeting.

All other expenses are covered by your membership fees in the Tennessee Campus Compact.

"Service-learning is the various pedagogies that link community service and academic study so that each strengthens the other."
- Thomas Ehrlich, July 1996

TENNESSEE Campus Compact

"Service-learning is the various pedagogies that link community service and academic study so that each strengthens the other."
- Thomas Ehrlich, July 1996

TENNESSEE CAMPUS COMPACT (TNCC) became the 33rd State Campus Compact in the United States in affiliation with the National Campus Compact on March 13, 2008. The TNCC is a presidential membership organization governed by a presidents' council, an executive board, and an advisory committee to serve as a statewide coordinator, convener, and catalyst to advance civic engagement, service-learning, and community service in higher education. The TNCC will provide hands-on leadership through:

- A culture of engagement through academic-community-business-government partnerships;
- Capacity building through VISTAs, infrastructure support, and resources through a national network;

TNCC Governance	TNCC Member Institutions
Host: Lipscomb University Founding President & Executive Board Chair: President Melvin N. Johnson, TSU Vice-Chair/Secretary/Treasurer: President Claude O. Pressnell, Jr., TICUA Executive Board: Chancellor Charles W. Manning, TBR President Timothy Hall, APSU President Sidney McPhee, MTSU President Robert Bell, TTU President Shirley Raines, U of Memphis Chancellor Tom Rakes, U of TN at Martin President Carl Hite, CSCC President Karen Bowyer, DSCC President Mary Lou Apple, MSCC President Nathan Essex, SWTCC President Warren Nichols, VSCC President Robert Fisher, Belmont U President Wesley McClure, Lane College President Randolph Lowry, Lipscomb U President Ted Brown, Martin Methodist U President Joel Cunningham, U of the South Dr. Deborah K. Harley, Advisory Committee Chair, ETSU Tel: 423-439-5675 or harley@etsu.edu Mani S. Hull, Founding Executive Director Tel: 615-966-5294 or Cell 615-293-2927 mani.hull@lipscomb.edu "Service-learning, community-based research, and other forms of civic engagement, when done well, improve student learning outcomes while addressing issues of access, diversity, retention, and workforce development. As a result, elements of engagement are being incorporated into Carnegie classifications, regional accreditation standards, and major research funding criteria." Maureen Curley, President, National Campus Compact, October 2007	Austin Peay State University Belmont University Carson Newman College Christian Brothers University Cleveland State Community College Dyersburg State Community College East Tennessee State University Lane College Lee University Lipscomb University Martin Methodist University Middle Tennessee State University Motlow State Community College Pellissippi State Community College Roane State Community College Rhodes College Southern Adventist University Southwest TN Community College Tennessee State University Tennessee Technological University Tennessee Wesleyan College Trevecca Nazarene University Tusculum College University of Memphis University of the South – Sewanee University of TN at Knoxville University of TN at Martin Vanderbilt University Volunteer State Community College Walter State Community College The founding of the TNCC was made possible by seed grant funding from Campus Compact, Volunteer TN, Learn and Serve America, AmeriCorps*VISTA, Nashville Area Chamber of Commerce, and the annual dues of member institutions. Updated March 15, 2010